SHOULD CHRISTIANS KEEP THE SABBATH?

How important is the 4th Commandment in your Christian walk?

DIDN'T JESUS SAY HE CAME TO FULFILL THE LAW?

He did say it.

And He is doing it.

The law was not completely fulfilled at the cross. He said that until heaven and earth pass away, the law still stands.

He IS fulfilling the law, even now. While Jesus' earthly body died on the cross, He is still very much alive!

The prophecy surrounding Him is in two parts – before the cross, or more specifically, the ascension, and after the ascension.

The first part, the crucifixion and pouring out of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost, are walked out in the Spring Feasts. The next part, His return, is walked out in the Fall Feasts.

And keeping the Sabbath is a commandment that we are still required to keep.

MOST PEOPLE ARE NEVER TAUGHT THE ENTIRE FOURTH COMMANDMENT

Let's break down Exodus 20:8-11 verse by verse to get a clearer picture of what the Sabbath really is.

VERSE 8

Remember the Sabbath to keep it holy. This is the part we know from the Ten Commandments.

VERSE 9

Labor for six days and do all your work. This acknowledges our need to work but hints at what's coming.

VERSE 10

On the seventh day, the Sabbath, you are to do NO work. THIS is how it is set apart from the world.

VERSE 11

Don't cause anyone else to work. Don't do any business or cause someone to break the Sabbath.

IT'S NOT RELIGION IT'S RELATIONSHIP

Jesus said that if we love Him, we will keep His commandments.

That's not religion. Obedience doesn't come out of a sense of duty or because we fear the consequences.

It's because we LOVE Him and want to please Him.

How much do you love Him?

DID ANYONE IN THE NEW TESTAMENT KEEP THE SABBATH?

Keeping the Sabbath was a regular custom in the life of the believer.

We see this demonstrated throughout the New Testament:

- Luke 4:16 - Jesus taught in the synagogue on the Sabbath
- Luke 4:31 - Jesus taught on the Sabbath
- Luke 6:6 - Jesus taught on the Sabbath
- Acts 13:42 - Gentile churches were keeping the Sabbath

Jesus, the Apostles, and all believers kept the Sabbath as commanded.

In Revelation 14:12 we see that believers will be keeping the Sabbath in the last days.
